Apartment Hunting 101

What is your budget

- Does the rent include utilities:
  - water
  - electricity
  - sewer
  - Trash
  - Internet
  - cable
- Will you need parking? Are there additional fees for parking?
- If it is on the bus/metro line, how much would you need to pay for transportation?
- Is the space furnished or will you need to purchase furniture?
- Is there a “pet” deposit?

Apartment Hunting 101

What are your needs

Some of the questions that will guide your off-campus housing search...

- Types of housing – apartment, house, townhouse
- Floor plan options?
- Do you want your own bathroom?
- How many roommates (if any) do you want/need?
- Location?
- Do you need a full kitchen?
- Washer and Dryer in the unit?
- Walking distance to campus?
- Parking/Public Transportation? (securing it & costs)
- Pet friendly?

Where do you start your search?

- Other online searches
  - Facebook groups
  - Zillow
  - Property websites
- Talk to your networks
- Consult online reviews (Google, Reddit) *critically

General process

- Searching for options online
- “Viewing” Apartments
  - Virtual tour
  - Online reviews
- Submit your application online
- Review lease/ask clarification questions to property manager/landlords
  - Rent: How much; when it is due; move in date? How will it be paid?
  - Needed documents: What documents do they need from an international student; do they need a Guarantor/Co-signer
  - Deposit: How much; how will it be used; how and when is it refunded?
  - Damages: Who pays for breakage or other damages over and above normal wear and tear – individuals or all occupants?
  - Subletting: Is it permitted; what is the procedure?
  - Roommates: Should all roommates sign the lease; are roommates responsible for only a portion of the rent; If someone moves out must the remaining roommates make up the difference?
  - Alterations: May the unit be altered, such as painted; can you hang pictures on the wall (and how)?
- Sign the lease

Understand your lease

- Read the ENTIRE lease before signing! A lease is a legal document that you are formally bound to upon signing. Do not hesitate to ask the landlord about clauses and terms you may not understand.
- Agree to any changes or additions with your landlord and make sure these are stated in the lease before signing. Maintain all documents of correspondence in writing and include all parties and ask for a copy of the written lease for personal records.
- Check if the Virginia Residential Landlord Tenant Act applies to your lease

Tips:

- Get renter's insurance, to protect you from unexpected theft, fire
- Before you move in, inspect the property, take lots of photos (or video), and fill out an exhaustive damage report checklist
- After you move out, take photos (or video), again, and get the landlord to sign an existing condition report verifying the damages for which you will be billed
- Keep a record of all maintenance history
- Similarly, keep all the rent payment receipts

Living with roommate(s)

Do's with Roommates

Space

- Respect Your Roommate's Space
